The Borough is excited to announce that the Farmers' Market in the Park will be returning for 2021. Opening Day is scheduled for Saturday, May 29th and we are hoping the 2nd year is as successful as the first. The market is free to interested vendors and spaces are first come/first served. The only rule is whatever you sell must be homemade, home grown, or home produced. The Market will be held on Saturdays from 9AM to 1PM through the fall, rain or shine. The only exception being on Saturday, July 3rd, when we will be closed because of the Borough's Independence Day festivities. Questions ??? Please call the Borough office at 570-538-1000.

Have you been wondering? The Watsonville Guild usually has a pierogi sale during Lent, but because of the pandemic we have decided not to expose members to possible illness. We're hoping to be at Lingle's Neighborhood Market during National Pierogi Month in October. We'll keep you posted! If you are a woman in the Warrior Run School District, you are invited to join our organization. For more information, please call Ann at 570-538-1928.
